Mr. Fulsom to Direct "Arsenic and Old Lace"

"Arsenic and Old Lace," to be given in the auditorium, November 22 and 23, is under the direction of Mr. Ralph E. Fulsom, chairman of the speech department.

Mr. Fulsom received his B. A. degree at Tulsa University, and his M. A. degree at Northwestern University. The Ph. D. degree is to be conferred at Northwestern.

Mr. Fulsom is a graduate of the Pasadena Community Playhouse in Pasadena, California. His teaching background includes high school and junior college speech and drama in Oklahoma; Transylvania College in Lexington, Kentucky; and Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois.

While in the Air Force, he directed a group of Air Corps personnel in a repertoire group at Asheville, North Carolina.

Bands to Be Divided Into Three Classes

The high school band contest for the Homecoming parade has been divided into three classes. These classes are Class A Missouri bands, Class B bands, and Iowa bands. There will be a first and a second place trophy given in each class.

The following bands have been entered at this publication: Mound City, Hopkins, King City, Maysville, Park Hill, Maryville, Oregon, Tarkio, Grant City, Quitman, Hamilton, Rock Port, Fairfax, South Nodaway, Burlington Junction, Craig, Graham, Westboro, and Rosedale.

From Iowa are Lenox, Farragut, Sidney, Mt. Ayr, New Market, and Leon bands.

Assembly

Father Sydney MacEwan, interpreter of Celtic Music, will present the assembly program Friday, October 29, at 10 a. m. in the auditorium.

Father MacEwan is making his first tour of the United States under the auspices of the National Arts Foundation of New York.

He will sing "the simple songs of Scotland, Ireland, and the Isles." He is acknowledged to be the world's finest singer of these songs.

For the past ten years Father MacEwan has been a priest. He was ordained in 1944 after graduation from Scots College in Rome. He has received permission to continue to make records and to come to the United States for only four weeks in 1954. The proceeds of his work are devoted to the Church Extension in the Diocese of Argyll, where he is stationed and which includes the Isles of the Hebrides.

Bush, Newman, Tobin Elected as Presidents

Junior Class: Marty Newman, president; Ric Tilton, vice president; Jean Ann Feurt, secretary; Ken Moore, treasurer; and Rosele Hamilton, publicity chairman.

Senior Class: Maurice Tobin, president; Homer McCauley, vice president; Shirley Davis, secretary and treasurer.

Dance to Conclude Annual Celebration

The big Homecoming dance which winds up the 1954 Homecoming festivities will get underway at 9:00 Saturday night at the College gym with the downbeat of Buddy Moreno and his orchestra.

Buddy has played at the famous Aragon and Trianon Ballrooms in Chicago and has recently had a long engagement at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in the same city. After he plays here, he is being billed at the plush Shamrock Hotel in Houston, Texas.

Before Buddy organized his own orchestra, he was the vocalist for Dick Jergen's widely known band. It is Moreno's record of "Cecilia" that made a hit last year. He is fast becoming popular as a dance band leader with an organization that plays very danceable music.

Plans are underway for a bigger and better dance this year with a normal day, but at 8:10 when Marty Newman, Harold Dinsmore, and Janet Mills as tri-chairmen of the decorations committee and Carol Groom as chairman of ticket sales. Tickets for the dance are $1.50 per person.

President J. W. Jones, Dean W. A. Brandenburg, and Registrar Robert Foster are ex officio members of the council.

Tomorrow, in the Old Bearcats' Den, students will vote for the Homecoming Queen of 1954. The voting will begin at 8:00 a. m. and continue until 4:00 p. m.

Members of the Student Senate will be in charge of the voting booth. Miss Lois Simons, Dr. Sterling Surrey, and Frank Bayless will count the ballots. Campaigning began on Monday of this week and will continue through Thursday. Each candidate is limited to $15 for campaigning.

At the Variety Show, tomorrow night, the winner will be announced to the students, and the Queen and her attendants will preside at the pep rally and bonfire after the Variety Show.

Lyle, a chemistry major and a general science minor, is a member of the Phi Sigma Epsilon. This is not a new experience to Lyle as he was the Master of Ceremonies for the Variety Show in 1951.

The skits for the Variety Show featuring seven of the campus organizations have been submitted to Miss Evelyn Hillman. The organizations have been holding rehearsals for these skits during this week.

The Queen and her attendants are to be presented to the students at the Variety Show tomorrow night for the first time. This will be a highlight of the election day.

Letter Club Stages Annual Walkout Day.

The annual Walkout Day festivities were held on Wednesday, October 13, after days of suspense. The 8:00 classes began just as if it were a normal day, but at 8:10 when the Victory Bell sounded, the nor-and Janet Mills as tri-chairmen of the decorations committee and Carol Groom as chairman of ticket sales. Tickets for the dance are $1.50 per person.

Under the supervision of Duane Freeman, the able president of the M Club, the freshmen were lined up and marched to the courthouse square uptown for the final Kangaroo Court of 1954.

The heads of a row of freshmen boys were trimmed, to closely resemble billiard balls, with letters replacing the numerals. Complete with quotation marks and an exclamation point, the boys' heads were shaved to reproduce "Bearcats!" when placed in the order of Wright; Class of 1957—Dr. Irene Mueller, Mr. William Lafferty, Mr. Donald Valk.

The girls were treated with a little more kindness, but not much. Several of the girls who laughed too long at the wrong time, had their heads doused with men's after-shave lotion and other types of solutions.

Apparently no ill feelings were harbored by the freshmen as the M Club members placed them through the annual rites of becoming a freshman.

After an all-school picnic which was held at noon, the students were entertained by a variety show and a movie at the Tivoli Theater. The variety show was emceed by Frank Russell and Jerry Davis who had plenty of humor to meet the occasion.

Some of the highlights of the show were the songs sung by the Tau Tones; the pantomime by Pat Adams and Sandy Almquist; the freshmen band composed of Don Bennett, George Green, Clare Horning, Vernon Jenkins, Jerry Troxell, Gary Funkhouser, and Clarence Enyart; and the dancing twins, Verda and Veda Whitehill.

The day was brought to a finale by the Walkout Day dance which was held in the Union Lounge with Johnnie Nelson and his Orchestra playing.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"I don't see how any of you can expect good marks in this course . . . You enrolled for it shows you don't have a very high I."

Hold that Line . . .

Hold that line . . . Sounds like a football game. It's only your conscience reminding you there is always a line breaker in every crowd.

Doesn't it make you utter unmentionable phrases and your temper fly to have some one's friends, along with umpteen more of that person's friends, step in front of you on the very day you're famished.

Reverse the situation; some other poor hungry soul may be forced to gnaw one of your arms if you permit your buddies to sneak in line.

Common courtesy isn't too difficult to maintain . . . so step to the rear of the line, please.

Harvest Moon

By ARTHUR J. CAUFFIELD

The Harvest Moon, or Hunter's Moon, is a traditional name handed through the ages to our American people. It is evident the pioneers of this country were alert and grateful for all favors and claimed benefits of nature's ways. Many hardships were blessings.

Their moon was the light for night and was in its fullness when on the opposite side of the earth from the sun, a situation necessary to have a full moon.

The path of the moon on the earth is similar to the sun's path during the previous six months. Many people have noticed the summer sun rising in the far northeast at a small angle with the horizon, seeming so large because of its comparison with some buildings or haystacks.

With its nearness to the horizon the autumnal moon likewise rises more nearly parallel with the earth's horizon while the sun is setting in the same way just beneath the horizon on the opposite side of the earth. Hence light for several days is lengthened from 30 minutes to an hour at a time much needed by crop growers to gather their harvest.

Mrs. Pearl Goodwin, summer graduate of 1953, will represent Northwest Missouri State College at the inauguration of Owen M. Wilson as President of the University of Oregon this fall.

Formerly of Creston, Iowa, Mrs. Goodwin now resides in Junction City, Oregon. She received her B. S. in elementary education on July 30, 1953.

She is in charge of eight home economics majors who in turn are taking care of a small baby for some home training requirements.

Mrs. John Mauzey, of the foreign language department, has recently received a card from Harley Hackett, Dearborn, who is now at West Point, N. Y. Harley wrote that he is not in school. He has arrived so recently that he does not know what his assignment will be.

Harley was graduated from the College in July, 1953, as an English major and French minor.

Miss Joan Cartwright is teaching in the Blue Springs High School in Blue Springs. She is teaching English I, French I, and speech.

Mr. Evan Agenstein, a 1931 graduate of this college, is teaching at Lafayette High School in St. Joseph, Mo.

Spending his last year in the Navy, Jerry Thornhill plans to return to school next year.

Mr. Joseph E. Kurtwright of 4831 Sesa Circle N., Jacksonville, Florida, an alumnus of this college, is working in Civil Service as Educational Consultant to the Aviation Ground Officers School, NATTC, NAS, Jax.

Alumnus William E. (Johnny) Davis is teaching at Andrew Jackson High School in Jackson, Florida. He, his wife, the former Betty Todd, and daughter live at Bishop Estates Rd., Mandarin, Florida.

James Hill, who was graduated in 1950, and for the third year is art supervisor at Cameron, visited friends in the College last Tuesday. He reports all his high school classes are full, one talented student doing a mural, and that more interest than ever before is shown by pupils and teachers in the elementary rooms.

Bill Christensen, who was graduated from the College in 1950, writes from Sibley, Iowa, that he is happy that the Bearcats won their first game of this year.

Donald Lee Corbin, of Weston, leaves this week to attend midshipman's school in Newport, Rhode Island.

THE STROLLER

Monday, Oct. 11: "If Walkout Day isn't tomorrow, I'm just sunk. I haven't studied for a thing."

Tuesday 8:00 a. m.; "No sense in going to this class. I'll only be here ten minutes."

Tuesday 8:30 a. m.; "I wonder if they're having trouble finding the key to the bell?"

Tuesday 9: a. m.; "They can't fool me. They're going to wait until this hour to ring the bell. Pretty cute joke?"

Tuesday, 11:00 a. m.; "Boy! Are they going to be sorry they didn't have it today! You could not ask for a more beautiful day! I hope it snows tomorrow!"

These were the general statements heard by nearly every student of the College last week.

The results for most of us—two Walkout Days—an unofficial one on Tuesday and "the day" on Wednesday. A day of recuperation was suggested. However, that was asking too much.

Frank Pebbley must have a reason for asking every girl he sees how much she weighs. A good reason, that is.

While doing all the work on Homecoming, we always ask ourselves who's going to have enough energy left to enjoy it. No one yet has ever had a nervous relapse from working too hard at Homecoming, so quit worrying. You'll enjoy it. Always have, haven't you?

What is that I see? Why the Green Hornet rides no more. Dr. John Harr, head of the social science department, is driving a new Studebaker. Don't worry if he is late to class, as his car is hydro-matic drive and it may take him some time to become accustomed to this.

The Stroller thinks the new Homecoming stickers are O. K. Just wishes he had even an old car so that he could decorate it with Homecoming stickers.

Absent minded student . . . The Dick family waited impatiently for their car one day this week and so did the daughter not realizing she was the one who had left it on the campus.

What is it? How could it be so terrible? The worst I've ever seen! Not a national issue being discussed—it's just the comments on the proofs of the individual Tower pictures.

The Residence Hall councilors elected this year are as follows: first floor—Pat Boydston, Bettebelle Pitts, and Joan Terwilliger; second floor—Marcia Woodcock, Dona Walker, and Barbara Nixon; third floor—Ellen Hedstrom, Norma Granteer, and Kay Barnes.

They're Talking About . . .

Tuesday, October 12 . . . Seems that everybody from the freshmen on up thought this was the day. Everyone expected the Victory Bell to start ringing around 8 o'clock. What a surprise when no "M" Club members showed up for the start of the big show, meaning of course, Walkout Day . . . Rumors have it that most of the girls at the dorm even had gone so far as to be dressed in slacks and jeans . . . And what about the guy who didn't bother to study the night before, thinking there would be no classes . . . Moral: Never believe any rumors pertaining to Walkout Day! Isn't that right, Duane Freeman?

Wednesday, October 13 . . . This was the day it happened. Long awaited Walkout Day became a reality. There was no mistaking about it when the "M" Club members showed up wearing levis and their big green jackets . . . The big parade of the freshmen started from the front of the Ad building and worked up steam all the way to the courthouse downtown. Here the formalities started with singing, shampoos, and haircuts—the freshmen of course stole the show . . . The march back to the campus pond was enlivened when the freshman boys carried the girls part way. The canoe battle, flour fight, races and tug-o-war all added to the morning's festivities. The afternoon show and the dance that night put a good finish on a good day . . . It will be remembered for some time, and evidence of Walkout Day will remain until some hair grows out.

Delta Sigmas

The Alpha Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon had its regular meeting in the chapter room Tuesday evening.

Final plans for Homecoming were made. The committees are the following: House Decorations—Marcia Woodcock, Verla Mosman, Shirley Johnson, Carolee Evans, Mary Griffin, and Carol Walker.

Beauty Float—Barbara Taylor, Marcia Ely, Shirley Ellyson, Janet Dinkel, Lavonne Van Meter, Sandra Craven, and Rosalie Hamilton; Humorous Float—Evelyn Finter, Helen Gillis, Evelyn Mathews, Kathryn Taylor, Donna Potter, Macyl Landphair, and Katherine Buttermore.

Good luck to Marcia Woodcock, Homecoming queen candidate.

Tau Talk

The Taus met the Tekes in intramural football play last week and split a double header. The Tekes took the opener 25 to 6 and the TAUS bounced back to hold them scoreless in the second tilt. This was the first defeat of the season for the TAUS. Coach Jones felt that the opponents loaded their winning team. He said that a look at the roster would bear this out.

Loading is not prohibited by the intramural rules but is done in an attempt to insure victory for one team. Both the TAUS and the Tekes emerged with the same number of intramural points toward winning the trophy.

Duane Freeman, president of the M Club, and the hardworking Tau, threw everyone a curve last week when he set the date for Walkout day. All turned out for the best, though, and the variety show was a success. The Taus Tones, directed by Robert Pumphrey, sang

These Plan Reunion Festivities

"The Old Songs," "After Dark," and "Goodnight Sweet Heart." Taus Frank Russell and Jerry Davis did a tremendous job of emceeing the program and announcing the acts.

Robert Pumphrey announces that sometime in the near future, the Tau Tones will call upon the women of Residence Hall and give a serenade which will include many old favorites and some new ones. He plans work with a quartet but does not know yet whether or not they will be featured in the serenade.

Letters from former Taus are pouring into Quad I. Letters from Jim Mitchell, Bob (Gung Ho) Kariger, Tom Carver, and Bob Colville have been received. Anyone interested in reading the letters or securing the addresses of these fellows are welcome to contact Frank Russell at Quad I.

Don Corbin was back on the campus last week for a short visit. He is working for the Standard Oil Co. in Kansas City, awaiting his call from the naval O C S program.

The Taus have six pledges for the fall semester. They are the cream of the crop. Lex Creamer, Union Star; Jack Spence, St. Joseph; Tom Bishop, King City; John Woody, St. Joseph; Frank Davis, Essex, Iowa; and Dale Hague, Adell, Iowa, are on their way to being Taus. For once it looks as though the Taus won't be hustling right up to the last minute the parade starts. The preparations are coming along smoothly and everything is on schedule. Good work, gang.

Phi Sig Review

Homecoming means work for the Phi Sigs and that is just what they are doing. Floats, clowns, jalopies, and good clean fun promise the Phi Sigs a good homecoming.

The annual alumni banquet will be held Saturday, Homecoming day, at Tucker's Cafe. Serving will be at 12:00 noon.

Notes from pledge to pledge seem to be the fad now. All the bad things about actives are compiled in book form and left where an active can get a hold of them. Editors of the notes are John Harvey and Gordon Lemar.

Lester Wooten volunteered to be campaign manager for the frat's candidate for homecoming queen. We wonder how much work will be done with Lester and the Tri Sigs. We are really pushing for our candidate and hope everyone else helps us elect her.

A. C. E.

The new officers of the Association of Childhood Education are Janet Mills, president; Lorraine Mau, vice president; Evelyn Hillman, treasurer; Jane Dyer, secretary; Janet McClard, social chairman; Barbara Don Tyer, publicity chairman.

The Homecoming chairmen are Marge Wallace and Mary Lou Hedstrom, co-chairmen for the float, and Beverly Porter, house decorations.

Members of the A. C. E. recently entertained the pledges at a coke and cookie party. Janet McClard sang a solo and was in charge of games.

New active members are Betty Crowley, Dolore Stauffer, Connie Cutler, Maria Gamboa, Helen Propst, Marcia Woodcock, Elizabeth Tokuda, Janice Hynck, Bonita Allen, Darlene Coleman, Patty Crouse, Beverly Porter, Ramona Dickinson, Shirley Davis, and Barbara Nixon.

Bearcats to Encounter Bears in MIAA Tilt

Cats and Bears to Clash in Big Game Of the Season

Coach Ryland Milner and his aides have been putting the Bearcat squad through long and strenuous drills in preparation for the Homecoming tussle with the Springfield Bears.

Emphasis this week has been placed on the Bearcat passing attack. In previous games the Cats have displayed brilliance in their passing attack. Coach Milner hopes to have this attack to a point of touchdown production plus, by Saturday afternoon.

The Bears, three deep in every position, may not be taken lightly. With a solid ground game, the Bears will be a tough squad to beat.

The Bearcats, after having smashed Nebraska Wesleyan and then losing their next four, are due for a change. If the Cats still have that courage, spirit, and never-say-die will, the Homecoming game will be a real one.

Having never lost a Homecoming game since Homecoming became a large scale production in 1947 and having only a 0-0 tie with Cape Girardeau to mar an otherwise perfect record, the Bearcats are going to be out to keep the slate clean.

'Cats Injured, Fall to Miners

The 1954 fourth quarter jinx and additional injuries cost the Northwest Missouri State College Bearcats a victory Saturday afternoon at Rolla. The Miners, celebrating their homecoming before some 6,000 fans, scored two touchdowns in the final four minutes for a 19-13 win.

The Cats had led from the end of the second, 13-6.

Already hard pressed with lack of experienced reserves and the loss of Ona Monachino, star end, and Ron O'Dell, utility back, who did not make the road trip, Coach Milner's charges lost two of their star backfield men the first five minutes of play.

Mickey Mallen, ace halfback, was injured on the second play of the game and didn't play the rest of the fray. Then about five minutes later, Eddie Messbarger, another backfield man, was injured and had to be pulled from the game.

Bill Baldwin, fullback, was hurt and saw only limited service, and Darrell Walker played the last half with injuries to a leg. Fred Maher, normally an end, was put in the backfield along with Mel Gibson. Jerry Dancer, halfback, was moved to fullback and line backer.

But the Miners, averaging from 15 to 20 pounds more per man, clobbered the runners and gained through line plays.

Early in the first quarter, Rolla recovered a Bearcat fumble about 14 yards out. Valent Gribble hit the line and went over for the touchdown tally. The conversion failed.

But Maryville bounced back.

On their first play of the second quarter, Darrell Walker scored on a line buck, to tie the score. But the kick for the point-after was wide.

Late in the second quarter Walker flipped a pass to Bill Baldwin, who raced 55 yards for the tally. The kick by Walker was good to give the Bearcats a 13-6 lead. In the final seconds of the half the 'Cats were on the Rolla 8 yard line when the gun sounded. Due to a penalty on the final play, the Miners were given by the officials to run a play after the first half had expired. But the Rolla Miners clobbered an end-around play.

Both teams played back and forth in the third and up until mid-way in the final stanza.

Rolla made a big drive and Roger Feater went around right end and put the Miners only a point behind, with five minutes to go. Then on the first play from scrimmage after the kickoff, the Bearcats fumbled, with Rolla recovering. Four plays later Feater passed to Bob Helm 15 yards in the end zone for the winning tally. The conversion also was made.

Parade Festivity

Plans for the Homecoming Parade were completed at a meeting last Monday evening. The time and route of the parade were the primary topics of discussion. The route of the parade will be much the same as in previous years.

Lining up of the parade entrants will be on the street south of the main gymnasium on Fourth Street. The parade will follow Fourth Street to Buchanan Street, turn south on Buchanan and go to First Street; from there the parade will then go east to Main, then turn north on Main and go down Main to Franklin Park.

Mr. Ringold, faculty chairman of parade plans, emphasizes promptness in getting floats, etc. at the site of the parade start and be ready to go at 10 a.m. sharp.

Random Shots . . .

By EDD BUSH

Quite a joke last Tuesday, huh . . . many students peed over the extension of Walkout Day . . . many of them caught off guard by not studying for tests or reading their daily lessons.

Teke's still on the go in intramural football . . . Hoping Cats are up for Homecoming game and bring a victory to make a perfect Bearcat Homecoming . . .

Hoping O'Dell and Monachino ready for grid action by Saturday afternoon . . . And also hoping that the rest of the Bearcat grid squad are in perfect physical condition . . . Wishing Ona Monachino's parents and family a welcome and hope their visit here at "Ole State" is a pleasant and memorable one.

No serious injuries received from Rolla game . . . Walkout Day finally arrived, a lot of fun and good time had by all . . . Daryl Flint caught by some freshmen and given a flour bath, provided amusement for many . . .

Compliments are certainly due to the Sigma Tau Gamma chorus; was really great, fellas . . . Duane Freeman, giving free haircuts, doing pretty good job and "Rock" Rowley administering shampoos . . . Know we'll all be looking forward to the next Walkout Day.
